In Memory of Miss Zee

Through her teachings, her way of life, and her open heart, she has helped us all. We will all remember what she taught us, and her guidance will help you in your lives and on your journey, wherever you may go. She would have wished for everyone to see that her teachings help people find their path, and love always warmed her heart, making her willing to help everyone who seeks help.

Together, we wish MissZee only the best on her final journey, which she is now embarking on with the angels and saints.

If you'd like to say goodbye to Miss Zee, you'll find her grave in the “Garden of Candles (Memorial)” room, on the side facing the waterfall.

MimiLadY

Who says a girl needs air to breathe when she has a stellar tech-house beat pounding through her virtual veins and a man nicely buttoned up in a suit?

We did meet MimiLadY, the sonic architect and unapologetic personality who commands the decks at PoS QUEEN. She turns original pop hits into dark, driving techno masterpieces while carving out space for raw, unfiltered passion away from the main floor.

"I discovered DJing in January 2024 through a challenge set by my girlfriend at the time," she shares. "At first, I learned how to mix tracks together, but I quickly found it boring, so I started looking for ways to learn how to remix tracks myself. It became a real passion, nearly obsessional."

She holds a strict rule when it comes to her sets. "I can't stand AI-generated songs and remixes. I find them soulless, and they're very easy to recognize. I have much more respect and admiration for DJs who are creative live, who never recreate exactly the same remix twice."

An Intimate Conversation

What is your sexual way?
MimiLadY: I'm mostly into men... well wait... I should say they are inside me haha. I played RLC before so I won't say I discovered it here, but the truth is that I started living a woman's life in cyberlife, and I made my coming out in real life after that. So yes, I am a transgender woman in real life, but I am 100% bottom. One of my kinks is doing it in crowded clubs, never on the dancefloor, but I always find a quiet place.
What is the first thing that catches your eye when a stranger approaches you?
MimiLadY: First words and outfit. People often play on their profile; the way they act says a lot more about them.
Do you prefer text and lots of roleplay, or hard sex with dirty talk and a remote to cum hard?
MimiLadY: An average balance is great. Text is very nice for foreplay, then when it comes to serious things I prefer dirty talk and people who know how to use the speed bar in a good way.
What must a potential partner have to turn you on?
MimiLadY: For a lasting relationship, an average balance of brain, dress code, and behavior. I have to say that men in suits and smart outfits are way more attractive to me than men in Bermuda shorts or open shirts. Please guys, button your shirts! You all have nice torsos here, no need to show it, or remove the shirt if you want to! I prefer a topless man to an open shirt. When I'm REALLY in need, the first coming would be fine for a one-shot quickie.
If your future love were to read this, how should he approach you?
MimiLadY: First, remove the horns, tails, and other fantasy stuff, it's a huge do not! For the rest, be kind, polite, fun, catch my attention, and don't ask for sex at the third sentence.

What is your favorite club or location?
MimiLadY: My own club, hahaha! It's the only place you can be sure I will be there. I open PoS QUEEN club on Wednesdays with the Unity label. I also love Tomorrowland, Profane, and Zodiac/Skull Bay.
How and how often do you masturbate? What does "cybersex" mean to you?
MimiLadY: Well I do it every time I have sex in game, and I expect my partners to do the same! It should be more a connection between persons than only pixels.

What was the longest night of sex here in the game? What kept you in "bed" for so long?
MimiLadY: Once I had a partner who knew so well how to play with a perfect balance of lilla text, dirty talk, and speed bar use that I kept my lovense in my ass for maybe 3 - 4 hours and omg I had so much fun with him.
The Game Question: If you could choose one new feature to be included in future 3DX game updates, what would it be?
MimiLadY: A hugging refusal! Just like for slowdance.

This wonderful world of ours allows us to explore, make friends, laugh, live out our wildest inhibitions and in certain circumstances fulfil fantasies. In this new series we will be joining people as they explore and live out some of their fantasies - and if you'd like to be a part of the series, whether it's fulfilling a fantasy or capturing an amazing moment please do let us know. In this edition we followed EveningSky as she planned and took part in a long held fantasy, her very first gangbang.

Hi Sky - Thank you so much for sitting down with us and letting Pixelboy be a part of this journey with you - If we can ask, What was it about this particular fantasy that turned you on so much?

Oh, there are so many things, I'll try to keep it short. Besides getting to have the attention of multiple guys at the same time. The thought ofbeing passed around and shared between them drives me wild every time I envision it. Knowing they are watching me as I'm being used whilethey stroke themselves or having me stroke them. Then eagerly grabbing me and joining in, is so exciting! It's one of the things that can drive me wild. And the thought of sharing it with Pixelboy really adds another level.

Was the excitement more intense knowing you had invited Pixelboy along to photograph it - did it add to the moment?

It absolutely made the moment more intense for me. Knowing Pixelboy was there photographing everything added this extra layer of being watched while I was already being shared. It still makes me excited just thinking about that.

So tell me about the lead up - how was it organised, what did you think when the opportunity was presented and how was it organised?
I had very little to do with organizing it actually. I had mentioned in passing that it was one of my fantasies to a very good friend of mine. He had said he might be able to set one up, then we moved on talking of other things and I didn't give it much thought after that. Little did i know he'd come back a few days later and say he has everything setup - asking what day I'd like it on. When he asked what time and how many guys would I like to attend, I felt my heart race and my face was probably bright red at the questions. I felt various things, shocked, excited, shy, and most of all I was turned on that it might actually be happening.

So tell us - the lead up to the event must have been exciting - how did you feel as you got there?
I was so excited I hardly slept the night before. My mind raced with how it might go and while most of me felt it would be fun and an exciting experience. A little part of me felt nervous that it wouldn't go as I was hoping. That nervousness lingered right until I got there. It washed away almost instantly as I was stripped and told to kneel in front of them.

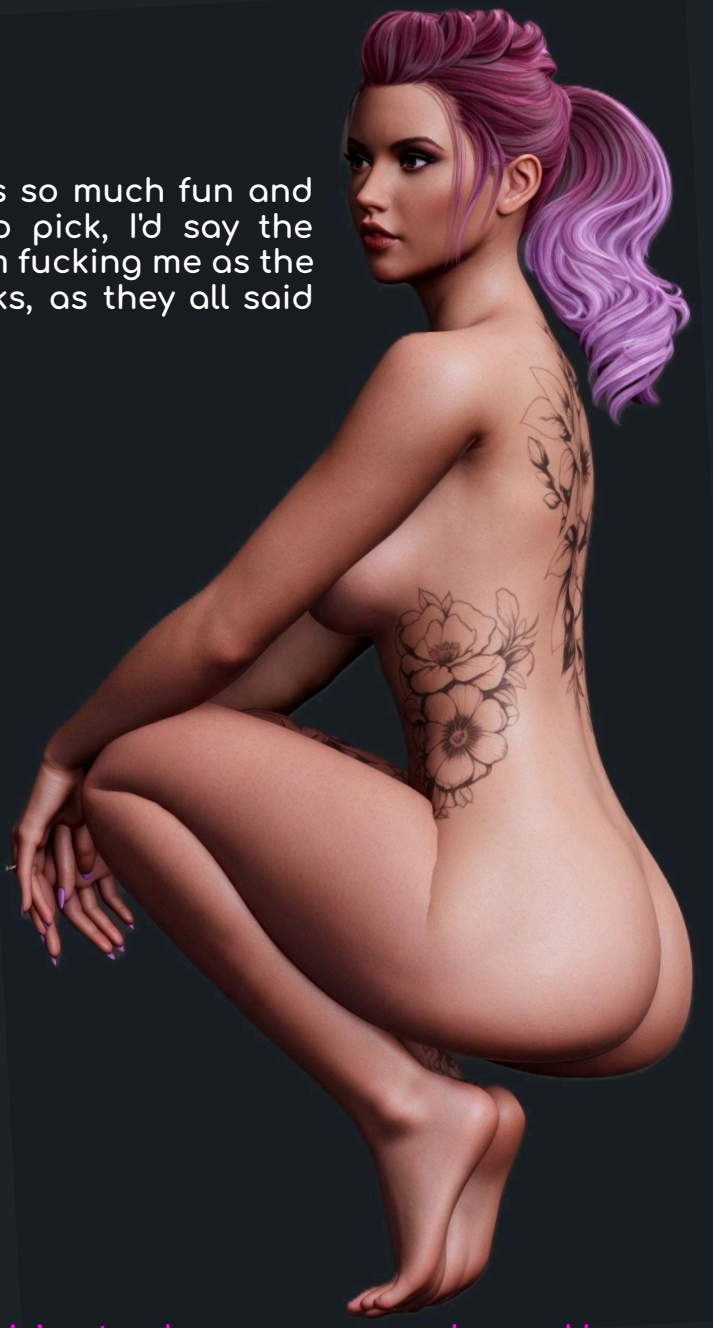

So you walked in and were ordered to be naked and get on your knees? What was going through your mind when looking at them all?
I was, I did as they told me without a second thought. Looking up at all of them surrounding me... my mind honestly just went blank for a second, then started racing with what they might do first and who might be first. I felt this heavy, almost dizzy kind of excitement. I could feel how many eyes were on me and it hit me hard. their lust and desire to have me was palpable. I was already wet and I hadn't even touched any of them yet

And what did they order first?
They took turns using my mouth at first, having me deep throat them as best I could, while i held my vibrator against my clit. Which was being controlled by the stunning Pixelboy photographer in the next room. Passing me from one to the other, letting them use my mouth as the toy between my legs kept getting more intense. It had barely started and they already had me on the edge, desperate to explode and craving for more.

Did the feeling of letting go and just being used fulfil the fantasy?
Oh, absolutely! giving up control and just being used by a group of hot guys easily fulfilled the fantasy, it was easily more satisfying than i had originally imagined

Speaking of satisfying, you certainly seemed to enjoy yourself! - just how many times did you orgasm?
Hehe oh I did! my heart was pounding. I wasn't really keeping count at the time and just letting everything I was feeling crash into me over and over. I'd say I came hard at least three times.

What was your favourite moment?
My favorite moment is hard to pick out. It was so much fun and mind melting from start to finish. If I had to pick, I'd say the moment they took me to the couch. Two of them fucking me as the other two stood next to us stroking their cocks, as they all said things that drove me absolutely wild.

Oh - Dominant and Kinky were they?
Hehehe Yes, they very much were

There's a story there, don't be shy
Mmmmmm Well, once they had me on the couch it was pure control. Pulled onto one of their laps as the other spread and lifted my legs making me lean back, feeling them both fuck me deep and slow, one telling me in this low voice how good I looked being used, how I was nothing but a toy for them in that moment. Telling me exactly whose cock I was going to take next and how they planned to pass me around until I was trembling. I surrendered all control, too drunk on pleasure to do otherwise. Every time I moaned they just grinned and pushed harder. That mix of being held down, talked to like that, and knowing they were all watching and having a small audience watch from outside the room... yeah. Completely dominant and so fucking kinky.

Toward the end they seemed to all make the decision to place you on your knees. How did that make you feel knowing what was coming next?
Mmm... it was a rush of everything at once. Excitement, yes, but also this deep sense of satisfaction. The moment they ordered me down onto my knees. I already knew what they wanted. I wanted it too, their cum all over my face. Some just grabbed my hair, forced their cocks into my mouth, and made me clean every inch after they finished. Being on my knees like that, looking up at all of them while they used me one last time... it was exactly how I wanted to be in the moment. It was so fucking satisfying.

And did that satisfaction come from the feeling of being used, was it the kink, the submissiveness?
It was a combination of all of them. The feeling of being used, being passed around and watched, the way I gave up control... all of it blended together. That mix is what made the satisfaction so intense for me. It was a completely unique experience.

And once they were finished you were there, on your knees, and they came a lot! What were the emotions as you took a moment?

Hehehe they did cum a lot! As I stayed there on my knees my mind was just... blank. Honestly,I could hardly form a thought. My whole body was trembling and I simply let the feeling of pure bliss wash over me. I remember mumbling "Wow..." under my breath while I knelt there a little longer, catching my breath and letting it all sink in. Replaying the entire thing in my mind all over again.

It's a week or so after the fantasy was fulfilled. What are your feelings now?

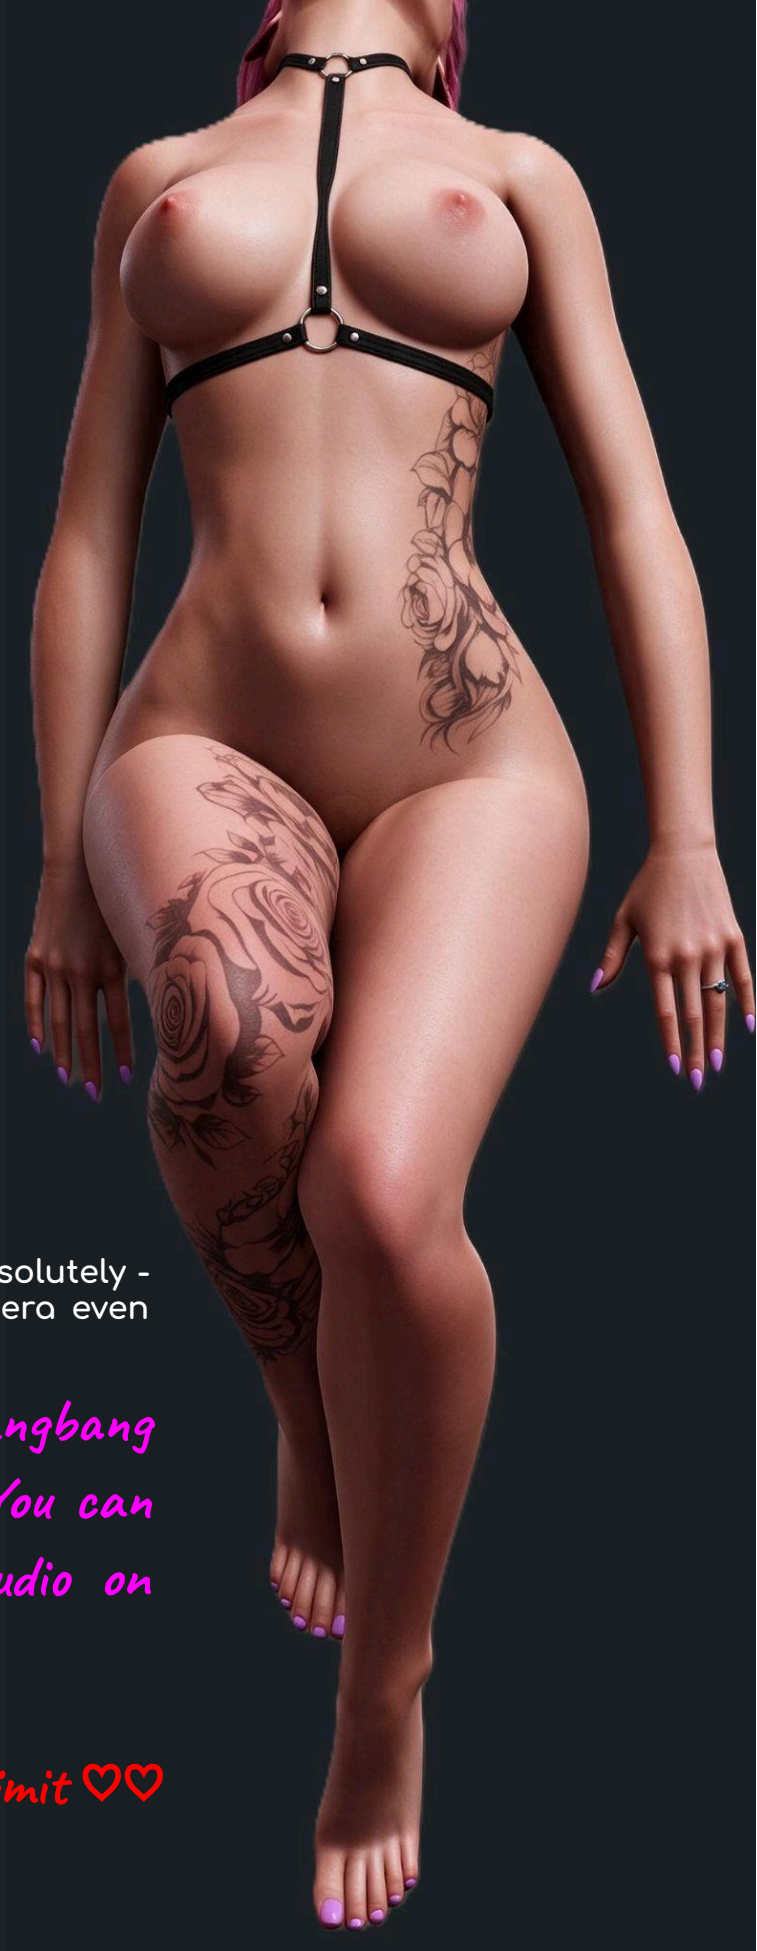

Now that it's been almost a week later, I still catch myself replaying moments in my head. There's this giddiness and sense of satisfaction that settles in whenever I think about it, like I actually got to live out something I'd only fantasized about. I just feel so glad to have had two people that care about me and wanted this to go well for me and because of them it did. It went very well, thinking back it was so much fun!

So the big question. What's next?

Hmmmm - For now? Keep having fun with my friends and loved ones, dancing at Purple Ladies. I heard some friends are putting together an orgy soon and that could be just as exciting.

And another gangbang? Hehe if the opportunity ever comes up again, I'd say yes in a heartbeat.

And you've made the decision to share the experience with our readers. Any advice for them?
We're all here to have fun at the end of the day. Don't be afraid to explore your desires, talk openly with people, and meet new ones. That's how the best memories and the hottest nights usually start. Xx

Sky, thank you so much for sharing with us
Hehe Thank you for taking the time to interview with me Jess and letting me share my experience with you all.

Editors thoughts:
I should probably state for the record that I am married to this stunning woman. The experience was daunting but also a massive turn on.
For me it was less the act and more the joy in seeing just how excited Sky become as the day got closer and closer. I of course had my concerns as anyone would. But those concerns centered more on whether or not the fantasy would live up to the reality. My initial concerns about Sky being reassured by the individual she chose to do this with and the group he put together. All were very respectful and got the "role".

Would I be happy for her to do it again? Absolutely - maybe next time i will have to get my camera even closer.

If you would like to see Skys first gangbang or be in a future naughty story. You can find all the details at Trixys Studio on Discord Discord

Sky's the Limit ♡♡

Today we are joined by a familiar face for those who have read past issues of Pixelboy, The strikingly beautiful CherryD. Though today she isn't Cherry, because she has now fully emerged. So welcome everyone to Demi Quinn. Demi thanks so much for sitting down and agreeing to talk to us. This is a very new and if we may say incredibly stunning look for you. Was it time for a change?

Thank you for having me, it's always a pleasure to be in such amazing company. Well yes it was time for a change both new look and new me. Feel like I got lost for a while so trying to carve a new path for myself. So hello world, I am Demi.

Would you say that this wonderful world of ours can sometimes be all consuming. What do you do to remember this should always be fun? Any tips?

Yes i would say it is consuming, i got lost init for a while and kind lost my way. I recently took a short break and only just came back to it in small doses. I know I limit my time online to try and keep a healthy balance of fun and real.

I think we'd all agree that's very healthy. So tell us a little about your journey - what brought you to this wonderful world, and so far what has made you stay?

I was looking for friends and people who i can talk to. I never thought that something like this could bring out my emotions the way it does, I feel like this whole world of ours is something very special and the connections I have made here are very special to me. I have laughed, cried, been in love and felt thing i never thought I would in such a short time here I have been on the highest of highs and the lowest of lows it really is a roller coaster.

If you could go back and speak to the person you were when you first entered this world, knowing everything you've experienced, the friendships you've made, the love you've felt and the heartbreak you've endured, what would you tell them? And would you still choose to take that same journey?

There are things I would change and things I wouldn't but if I had to do this all over again would I change them? No. Is the simple answer, I feel like if things didn't go the way they have I wouldn't be the woman I am right now.

You say that everything you've experienced hasshaped the woman you are today. What do you think has changed most about you since you first arrived here? And perhaps more importantly, have the people you've met helped you discover who you really are, or have they helped you become someone you never imagined you could be?
I feel like they have yes, brought out a more confident me, I still have a long way to go and I'm working on it day by day but I do feel like they have helped me along the way. I have discovered a lot of new things about myself during my time here and some good some bad but they make me who I am.

If you had to pick three things about your time in this world so far — one thing that's made you laugh until your sides hurt, one memory you'll treasure forever, and one thing you're still hoping to experience — what would they be?
I think something that makes me laugh now would be the first time i tried stripping, I had no idea what I was doing and made a complete fool out of myself.Something that will live with me forever is being pinned to a wall and eaten out by you in front of a busy room because i told you to take my boots off yourself. And something I want to experience honestly love. For me it feels like something will always get in the way and honestly most of the time its me, but I am working on that

I love that, despite everything, you're still looking forward to what comes next. So, three more things: what's something you've always wanted to try here but haven't dared to yet, what's one thing you'd love to be remembered for, and if you could make one wish for your future in this world, what would it be?
Wow erm, well going forward I would like to try and get some new friends, sounds silly but you've seen me on stage and I'm full of confidence but see me off stage im really shy and dont talk a lot. So I want to be more out there and meet new people. One thing I want to try is a gangbang. I know a sharp turn but it's on my list! I don't wish for love as I feel it has to happen naturally but I do wish for my club Cherry drops to grow and become a success

Going back to stripping - tell us about your first time. What was it that you feel went so wrong?
Well, I think I fell off the stage at least three times I kept forgetting to actually take off my clothes and my purple was utterly terrible. I mean i can and do laugh at myself for that but if I could watch it over again I would have my face firmly behind something trying to hide.

(Stifles giggles) Well, we've all been there, and I'm sure you'd agree with me we all start somewhere, sometimes the hardest part is getting on the stage, or in our case staying on it! You're a very popular stripper and highly sought after. What advice would you give to people starting out or wishing to give it a try?
I wouldnt say im sort after or popular but thank you for saying it. I appreciate it a lot. Advice from me, keep learning, look at local chat at what other people do. Don't copy them but learn from them make it ur own, but I just want to give the customers the best experience that can get especially right now with the gold crisis happening so if someone decides to tip me or send me a gift I put in the effort to make them feel like I was worth their gold.

You've spoken about wanting to give people the best possible experience, especially when gold is so precious right now. What makes a performance truly successful for you?
Sometimes the reactions drive me to be better, give them more for their gold in a way, seeing and reading their reactions knowing they have had a good time watching me is amazing and makes me want to do it more. But for me walking off stage after dancing my ass off it doesn't matter if im naked or not as long as I have had fun doing it then im a happy girl most of all

Well first of all my mental health stays on track and I don't fall down again. Next would be my club being open more and running smoothly even without me being there and lastly hopefully find someone who I can spend time with and build a life with maybe but i'm not rushing into that so that last one might me three years not three months haha

Demi - thank you very much for sitting down with us today. It's been a pleasure

Pleasure is all mine as always

Walking into the club I could already feel eyes on me, shimmying my shoulders as my long fur coat was handed to the waiting staff, i slipped my toes from my heels, bathed in the light of the club dressed in my favourite slutty armour.

I spotted him in the distance, watching me intently as my bare feet caressed the wooden floor, big thick powerful cock in hand as he gently stroked watching me intently.

We didn't need words. I boldly walked over to him, my hand taking over from his as I sat alongside him, caressing his throbbing member as precum slowly flowed onto my hand.

I was sure to lift my fingers to my lips, tasting him as I watched intently before leaning in for the kiss that was long overdue.

Our lips caressed as his tongue told me how much he wanted me. His cock throbbing in my hand driving me wild and spurring me on to see just how good he really tasted.

I sunk to my knees, hand rolling over him as my tongue met his balls.

His gasp echoed round the club as i looked him in the eye, long slowly licks of my tongue caressing him as he could only bite his lip, his cock throbbing as it rested against my slutty face precum flowing freely as I told him how much I needed him.

I eagerly took him into my mouth, my tongue rolling round the head of his cock before flicking against him, looking him in the eye as my lips wrapped around him and i felt him throb further and further into my throat.

I refused to gag, my competitive slutty side coming through as all around me the world stopped. The club coming to a halt as they watched the naughty blonde slut on her knees taking more and more of this big cock into her mouth.He gasped and moaned over and over as I took all of him deeper.

I slowly climbed to my feet, bent at the waist as I bent over wiggling my ass for the crowd of onlookers, reaching behind myself as I caressed my ass, showing the audience just how excited I was as cheek by cheek I spanked myself, the sound echoing round the club.

I heard the DJ make an announcement over the sounds of my slurps and his moans as I forced my mouth down onto his cock choking myself. “Come see the stunning SweetSalope charm another man who is having his mind blown”. I giggled at the announcement and shook my ass a little as the comments began to be audible.

“How has he not cum already?”

q“God I love her ass”
“Look how excited she is”

He kneeled as his hands wrapped through my hair, thick cock thrusted into my mouth as i felt myself open and exposed, the excitement driving me wild as i reached between my legs, fingers pressed against my clit as i gagged and sucked and spat on his cock, his thrusts plunging deeper and deeper and deeper into my throat as his balls slapped against my chin.
My pussy soaked as my toes curled, feeling my body shake and shiver and tingle as I felt my body clench, slowly getting closer and closer to losing total control as I looked up into his eyes. His gasps driving me wild as lust flashed through his eyes and the pounding of the music made the leather seat vibrate, more so with every thrust. “My god your mouth is amazing” he moaned “Are you ready for me to use you in front of everyone?”. I moaned his precum flowing over my tongue as I looked up into his eyes and nodded.

Sitting down, grabbing my hand as i straddled him and lowered myself onto his cock, throbbing inside me as I gasped feeling him twitch and throb inside me. Looking into his eyes my toes gripped the seat as my lust matchedhis. His moans and the hubbub of the crowd behind us only serving to spur me on as I thrust myself onto himover and over, his cock throbbing deeper and deeper as my body began to let go, my eyes rolling as i shrieked my pussy clenching as my body let go.

I gasped as for a moment the room dimmed, panting as without warning i was positioned on my knees, his hand caressing my ass before I felt his land against my cheeks HARD. “Fuckkkk” I moaned as my skin throbbed and tingled and I felt him thrust inside me again.

Grabbing my hands and thrusting hard I looked up to look on the audience as he used me, my body spasming as the gathered audience, their comments and his thrusts brought me to another earth shattering orgasm which caused my body to buckle as I saw stars.

He me, readjusting as his thrusts became furious, spanking my ass hard as the sound echoed around the club.

“That’s it, take that cock” - “Such a slut”

His moans and groans reached a crescendo as his body tightened and before I knew it he grabbed my hand turning me over and thrusting his cock into his mouth as he cried out and unleashed wave after wave after wave down my throat, trembling as my tongue ran up and down his shaft, savouring and enjoying every drop before he collapsed into a pool of his own sweat on the sofa nearby.

I stood, legs shaky as my bare feet caressed the cold floor, smiling and blowing kisses at the surrounding audience as I went to collect my coat and heels. Next time, I thought to myself, we'll need to add a third....

Beta is LIVE!

The new update is here here and we at Pixelboy have been taking a good look at the update to give you an unbiased first opinion and dear readers and the verdict is unanimous...

It is a HIT!

From Tie-Front Cropped Cardigans, Corsets, Blazer style mini dresses and fluffy towels the wardrobes have been updated. And it's not just us girls who are being given more options, the boys have also been furnished with shorts, towels, shirts and blazers galore. And alongside male makeup, new hairstyles and tattoos the options are endless to help themlook their best.

A huge selection of new poses for all of your photographic needs. A greater variety of new gifts, and a huge amount of additional cosmetic products will leave this particular girl in the wardrobe for many happy hours to come.

And then there's the new fluid simulation. Cum and female ejaculation now flow and run down bodies in a far more realistic way. Thick, glossy trails that catch the light, drip down with gravity, and cling to skin. It's one of those details that quietly elevates every intimate scene and makes the whole experience feel noticeably more immersive. Just need it to stop vanishing so quickly and stick around longer.

We'd love to see more shoes (Ok I would, I have an addiction) and a few more kneeling positions that don't look like we're unhappy to be there but this is a great step. To see the developers respond so quickly to feedback is encouraging and the recent mirror poses will make photoshoots here at Pixelboy even more creative!

As a warning, be prepared for people diving from the greatest of heights!

Submissive Bunny with Extra Carrot

This month's Babylon Club photoshoot winner, xXBunnyxX, proves that absolute surrender is more than just an act of love. In her case it's her own huge kink. Behind the playful aesthetic and a penchant for rough play lies a deeply dedicated pleaser whose primary mission in our world is simple: absolute, selfless satisfaction.

She's a cute little sissy and likes to show off her hard cock, even though she almost exclusively submits to others and wants to look after their well-being with complete selflessness.

PIXELBOY: How would you describe yourself?
xXBunnyxX: I think if I had to describe myself, I'm warm, creative, emotionally intense at times, and a big pleaser, submissive most of the time.

PIXELBOY: Is this your core kink?
xXBunnyxX: Yes it is. For me it is very important to make sure the other person gets off in real life. I enjoy everything from rough play to romance, but I like it rough a lot. At the end of the day, I just want to make people happy.

PIXELBOY: What is your most legendary moment in our world that you will never forget?
xXBunnyxX: Oh, so many to choose from. I would say it was actually quite recent. I met a charming, funny friend at a club, and after a few days we finally got together. The session went sixteen hours straight and I came six or seven times, I lost count.

PIXELBOY: What would you love to try next? Any new fetishes or real-life kinks on the horizon?
xXBunnyxX: Now that I think about it, a praise kink is something the digital streets need more of. A well-timed good bunny sends me right over the edge. I have never really explored it consciously, but I have loved the times it happened naturally. Humiliation can be arousing, but it can work the other way around too. For example, hearing good boy instead of dirty slut.

PIXELBOY: Would you like to share a few closing thoughts with our readers?
xXBunnyxX: Our world can be a beautiful place when we choose to make it one. Be kind, be genuine, respect the person behind the avatar, and leave people feeling a little better than you found them. The best memories here are not made by the room, the outfit, or the scene, but by how we treat each other.

Thank You
