The Vision Behind the Pixels

Samantha Silverstein - *Editor-in-Chief

Driven by an obsession for creativity, I've spent the last two years building elaborate virtual locations. I transformed a standard home into the "Villa of the Devil," an intricate structure boasting a BDSM basement and a jazz club. I personally designed and built everything, refusing to use pre-made assets. This commitment soon expanded to include a private island, a village, and a 24/7 radio station.

The architecture and sound were only the beginning. I wanted to give back to the community and create a network for all users.

That vision was the birth of PIXELBOY.

A new house is also on its way—a perfect Head Quarters for the magazine, currently under construction. This will be the beating heart of our operations: a professional photo studio for the world's hottest pixels, a cigar lounge for our journalists to trade secrets, and a stage for artists and bloggers to shine. And yes—from the "Grotto" to our private BDSM club. – There will be parties that blur the line between the digital and the divine.

We are here to document the art, the people, and the stories that make this world legendary.

Welcome to the first issue.

SanelaCox - The Butterfly

PIXELMATE - Language: DE/EN - sexual orientation: Bisexual

In the corridors of 3DX Chat, few avatars attract as much attention as Sanela Cox. Known for her openness, but also for her unwavering loyalty to her mistress, she is a woman of many roles: greeter, submissive, and creator. We sat down with her to talk about the meaning of her tattoos, her controlled life, and her “Bimbo School.”

Interview with SANELA COX

PIXELBOY: You have these incredibly vibrant, colorful butterflies tattooed across your body. They've become almost a trademark for you. What is the story behind them?

Sanela Cox: They were actually a gift from Anna, from Anna's Club, as a reward for my work as an escort there. To me, they symbolize the journey from one flower to another—a symbol of a woman who is free, open, and perhaps a bit promiscuous. They represent my nature perfectly.

PIXELBOY: Speaking of Anna, are you still active at her club?

Sanela Cox: Yes, I am. I still work there and I also take on the role of a greeter. You'll mostly find me there during the mornings (CET). My schedule is a bit of a balancing act, though, because I also have a Mistress, and taking care of her needs is my top priority. Sometimes I also work in Lana's Strip & Escort Club too.

PIXELBOY: It's no secret in the community that you've been her submissive for years. How did you develop such a deep level of devotion to her?

Sanela Cox: It comes from a place of genuine adoration. When you truly admire someone, it's easy to devote yourself completely. She also maintains a lot of control over my toys, which keeps the connection intense. I've gone through a lot of hypno-training and psychological conditioning to deepen that bond.

PIXELBOY: That sounds intense. You even built a specific place for that kind of transformation, didn't you?

Sanela Cox: I did! I built a room myself called the "Bimbo School." It's a space dedicated to that mindset. It's not open on a fixed schedule, though.

PIXELBOY: What makes a partner interesting to you?

Sanela Cox: I'm drawn to people who know how to handle me—someone who isn't afraid to take control. I also love it when a partner reaches their peak quickly because of me; it's the ultimate compliment. It makes me feel like I was truly good and that they enjoyed every second.

PIXELBOY: And for you? What does a partner need to do to make you lose control?

Sanela Cox: I love the feeling of someone going absolutely crazy for me. Dirty talk is a huge trigger. But honestly, I'm multi-orgasmic, so it doesn't take much to get me there! Sex always puts a massive smile on my face.

PIXELBOY: I think we can all agree on that! Especially with those butterflies as a view. How would you describe yourself to those who don't know you yet?

Sanela Cox: I'm happy, flirty, and I crave attention. I love joking around with my friends, I'm very open-minded, and obviously, I love sex. On a deeper level, I hate injustice and have a lot of empathy for others.

PIXELBOY: And what would your Mistress say about you?

Sanela Cox: (Laughs) She thinks I'm silly and adorable! Usually, she only sees me as "silly" when I make a mistake, which luckily doesn't happen too often.

PIXELBOY: What kind of "mistakes"?

Sanela Cox: Small things... like reaching an orgasm without her permission, or not behaving exactly as she expects. Sometimes she demands that I go without an orgasm for days. It makes me lose my mind, but it also makes me much more "hot" and eager. She plays with my Lush vibrating toy very often to keep me on the edge.

PIXELBOY: That's hot. So you have a few hot toys?

Sanela Cox: Oh, I have the full kit: the Lush, the Ridge, several dildos, and a few glass plugs. I like to be prepared!

PIXELBOY: That's a pretty hot collection. Looking back at your time in the digital world, is there one adventure that stands out?

Sanela Cox: There is one that people still talk about. One time, my Mistress ordered me to give a "warm welcome" (BJ) to 150 different people within just 10 days.

PIXELBOY: 150 people? Did you actually complete the task?

Sanela Cox: I did every single one. She loved seeing me being that "slutty," and honestly? I loved every second of it too.

PIXELBOY: And that's a perfect hot end for the interview. To wrap this up, do you have a message for our readers?

Sanela Cox: I just wish for everyone to have as much fun with their friends as I do every day!

Closing Words about the Heart Behind the cute Ink

Meeting Sanelacox is like a splash of color in a world of gray. While her stories about the "Bimbo School" and her strict devotion to her Mistress might seem provocative at first glance, there is an undeniable warmth and honesty in her digital behavior that is rare to find.

What makes Sanelacox so special isn't just her striking pixel aesthetic or her legendary 150-person challenge—it is her authenticity. In a virtual world where many hide behind masks, Sanelacox stands tall embracing her desires, her role, and her playful spirit without a hint of hesitation. She reminds us all that 3DX Chat is, at its core, a place for freedom and joy. Whether she is greeting newcomers at Anna's Club or exploring the depths of submissive training, she does it with a smile that—as she says herself—only a life full of passion can provide.

Sanelacox is more than just a model; she is a testament to the fact that empathy and "sluttiness," silliness and devotion, can coexist perfectly in one remarkable soul. We leave this interview not just impressed by her discipline, but inspired by her happiness.

Stay bright, Sanelacox. The digital world is a little more colorful with you in it. - PIXELBOY

Expert Heat: Inside the Sex Therapy Office

Office Hours: Mon–Fri | 3pm – 11pm UK Time Contact: Dr. Joekelly or Dr. AlisonNorfolk
Discord: "joekelly3dx"

📍 In the sprawling digital universe, many rooms offer pleasure, but few offer a cure for the soul.

PIXELBOY visited the SEX THERAPY OFFICE, a sanctuary where self-confidence is rebuilt through intimacy and where the doctors are just as adventurous as their patients.

A Legacy of Lust and Health

Founded over two years ago by Dr. Joekelly, the Sex Therapy Office is a masterpiece of virtual architecture. Built with a staggering 33,780 objects, every corner of this clinic is designed to evoke both professionalism and primal desire.

What started as a solo mission has grown into a powerhouse team of 14 therapists and a dedicated accountant. This expansion is a direct result of the clinic's innovative approach, which blends cutting-edge virtual reality technology with time-tested therapeutic practices. The clinic's unique environment is crucial to its success, offering clients a safe, private, and highly customizable space to explore their most intimate concerns. The clinic now hosts countless sessions per week, a testament to the high demand for its specialized services. The current team is highly diverse, bringing expertise from various fields of psychology, ensuring that clients with a wide array of issues can find tailored support.

Another impressive story is of the leadership: Dr. AlisonNorfolk joined as a personal assistant, rose through the ranks as a therapist, and a year ago, she and Dr. Joe tied the knot. Today, they run the practice as a powerhouse couple.

"Be proud of who you are! - We rebuild the ego so clients can truly enjoy the game more."

Dr. AlisonNorfolk

Trust, Desire, and Transparent Floors

The Interview with Dr. AlisonNorfolk and Dr. Joekelly:

PIXELBOY: When a new client walks through those doors, how do you begin the process?

Dr. AlisonNorfolk: It's all about trust. Without it, no one will ever truly open up about their sexuality. We help people who lack self-confidence or feel insecure about their appearance. We show them that they are lovable. We also analyze their "sexual appetite"—is it too much? Not enough? We find the root cause and, often, we can fix it in just one session.

PIXELBOY: Are there any taboos in your office?

Dr. AlisonNorfolk: In therapy, you can't really have taboos. As long as it stays within legal age boundaries, everything is on the table.

PIXELBOY: We've heard you even incorporate Lovense technology into your sessions?

Dr. AlisonNorfolk: Absolutely. We are "Masters of the Slider Bar." If a client needs us to take control of their toys to help them relax or explore, we do it. A therapist has to be flexible!

PIXELBOY: Tell us about the famous group room with the glass floor. It looks... naughty...

Dr. Joekelly: [Laughs] I just spent the morning polishing that glass! Dr.

Dr. AlisonNorfolk: But it's worth it. Our clients always leave the room with a smile on their face. Let's just say Joe, myself, and a few others had some "group therapy" there last night. There was plenty of fun to go around.

Case Studies examples: From Trauma to Transformation

Case 1: The Voyeur's Evolution

A client arrived distressed, feeling "strange" because he enjoyed watching his neighbors through their patio door. Dr. AlisonNorfolk helped him realize that his arousal was a natural response. Today, that same client has transformed his life: he is now in a happy cuckold marriage with a beautiful, "wonderful moist" wife, living out his fantasies with confidence.

Case 2: The Window Treatment

For shy women, Dr. Joekelly has a signature "shock therapy." He takes them to the large office window and has them wave to the neighbors. Then, the clothes come off. "I push her breasts against the glass for the whole 3DX world to see," Dr. Joekelly explains. "When the person next door waves back, the shyness vanishes. If you're happy, you try new things. If you're unhappy, you're just hurtful. We choose happiness."

Join the Medical Staff!

The clinic is expanding! Whether you have a background in sexual therapy or simply a deep passion for sex and helping others find their confidence, the Doctors want to hear from you.

- Therapists - (f/m/d)

Requirement:

Dr. Joekelly and Dr. AlisonNorfolk must "click" with you personally.

PIXELBOY'S Verdict

If your digital life is stagnating or your self-confidence is dwindling, the Sex Therapy Office is just the place for you. It's professional, it's unusual, and above all, it's effective.

It's also worth a visit just to see the impressive office and the way in which the best medicine ever is administered here. - It was an extraordinary pleasure to meet Dr. AlisonNorfolk and Dr. JoeKelly and get to know them.

Stripper Diary

Excerpt from the secret diary of the stripper JustJasmine

Innocent college student by day and naughty stripper at night.

Works at: Heavens Nights and YGFOM

Dear diary,

It is a cold day in early January as I arrived at the strip club, the parking lot was packed so I knew it was going to be a hectic night. I slipped into my little red dress, red high heels and my fishnet stockings my dress barely able to cover me up.

As I walked out onto the performing stage I spot one of my regular and he waved me over holding a big wad of cash in his hands. I approached and greeted him warmly and slowly started dancing to the music swaying my hips and shaking my tits. While I dance my regular who is a recently divorced stockbroker stuffs my fishnets with dollar bills, I started to slowly unzip my dress and slowly let it slide off my slightly glistening body as I danced in front of this man while I enjoyed watching his excitement about seeing me do this for him.

After just a little while I ended sitting on the edge of stage all naked apart from my heels I planted both of my heels on the armrests of his chair, my legs spread giving him a good view of my glistening wet slit.

He leaned in closer and whispered if we could go backstage and slips a big wad of bills into the strap of my heel, I stood up and gently took him by the hand and led him backstage we entered one of the private rooms. He almost could not wait for the door to close and he put his big strong hands all over my body, he pressed me against the door and slides two of his big fingers inside of me activating this switch in my brain and I started moaning while I buried my face in his shoulder. After he fingered me for a while he drops his pants and his big and very ready cock jumps out of them, I seductively led him to the bed, and I laid him down before straddling his lap and slowly lower my oh so wet pussy over his big member. It stretched me so deliciously, I could not help but moan loudly as I felt it impale me and once it slid past my cervix. I clenched around him so tightly and unintentionally dug my nails into his shoulders as I rode him. Our skin was slapping against each other with each bounce I made on top of him, as I felt him throb inside of me, he firmly squeezed my ass and gave it a hard slap made me clench around him even tighter. I was losing all control to him, and he loved every moment of it, eventually he flipped me over and pinned me down on the bed and went at it with an almost animalistic lust.

We ended up going on for such a long time I cannot even remember how many times that big veiny cock made me reach climax, what I can still vividly remember is the feeling of how my pussy felt empty and pulsed once he took it out and we laid on the bed panting and breathing heavily.

I really hope he comes around again soon my dearest Diary.

Close with a Joke

What is the most dangerous thing that can happen during an Erotic Roleplay?

Answer: When your Mistress tells you to 'stay exactly where you are and don't move'... and then your cat steps on the power button of your PC.“
